„The House of Romance” in Târgoviște

The establishment of the "House of Romance" in Târgoviște - a unique museum space in Romania - by the "Citadel of Romance" Cultural Association in Târgoviște, under the patronage of the European Federation of UNESCO Clubs and Associations is one of the most remarkable arguments with which we promote, nationally and internationally, the Romance music as a genre of national cultural heritage, for the purpose of its inscription in the Representative List of UNESCO's Intangible Cultural Heritage. The „House of Romance”

Museum is part of The National Museum Complex of „The Princely Court” of Târgoviște, subordinated to the County Council of Dâmbovița.

The idea of establishing the „House of Romance” belongs to the president and founder of the “Citadel of Romance” Cultural Association in Târgoviște, mr. Teodor Vasiliu, Ph.D. in History, author of the "History of the Golden Chrysanthemum" monography, a passionate researcher of the Romance genre and musical phenomenon in Târgoviște and the owner of an impressive personal collection of documents regarding the Romance and the "Golden Chrysanthemum" National Festival. Through this approach, the public has the opportunity to enter the fascinating world of the Romance, which has been celebrated by great singers, composers, poets, actors and remarkable personalities of Romania's national culture and also by valuable artists from the international scene.

The public commitments expressed by the public authorities in various official occasions and meetings, including those with the Honorary President of the World Federation of Associations and Clubs for UNESCO, mr. George Christophides, guarantees their support for this great cultural project fully appreciated by all national and international personalities who honoured the events organized by the „House of Romance” Museum in Târgoviște.

„The House of Romance - an embassy of culture in Târgoviste”

The “Citadel of Romance” Cultural Association in Târgoviște and the European Federation of UNESCO Clubs and Associations (EFUCA) initiated „The House of Romance – an embassy of culture in Târgoviște" project in January 2018.

The project is dedicated to promoting the tangible and intangible heritage of the Dâmbovița County, the events and objectives of great cultural, religious, scientific and tourist interest in this historical area of Romania and it is meant to contribute to the promotion of the cultural and historical heritage of the Dâmbovița County.
